Red Cross Hold Annual Meeting; Poor Turnout

A very poor turnout was in attendance at the annual Red Cross meeting held on Monday evening. Only five people turned out for a meeting of an organization that does a tremendous amount of work both in this community and other places. It seems a shame that an organization that supplies such things as food in saving lives, help in time of such things as fires, which we had only a short time ago here in Coleman, and help was willingly given, and other help, is so poorly supported.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. H. Allen, president, and Mrs. M. Johnson as secretary, recorded the meeting.

Mrs. J. Dunford reported on the Blood Donors' Clinic stating that an average of 98 had attended the two clinics held in 1957 from Coleman. The next clinic will be held on April 17.

Mrs. A. McQuarrie, speaking for the work group, reported that 16 quilts had been made last year with eight being given to the Snowdon family after their fire losses. This group is still very active with plenty of supplies and materials on hand for future use.

Mr. H. Allen reported that the Junior Red Cross was still active and working for their organization.

He also thanked the committees for their reports and for their excellent work during the year and for their help and co-operation during their term of office.

He tendered his resignation and it was accepted with regret.

There not being enough present to hold an election of officers, a nominating committee was chosen to put forward a recommendation at a meeting next Tuesday, March 11th and approach anyone interested in holding office.

Those chosen for this committee were Mrs. S. Murdoch and Mrs. A. McQuarrie.

Mrs. J. Dunford moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Allen for his work on behalf of the Red Cross during his term of office.

Welcome Party Held For New Residents

A welcome party was held in the United Church clubrooms on Friday evening for Mrs. Tacy and son Peter, who are new arrivals in town.

Games were played and lunch served. A sing-song was enjoyed by all.

A party shower was part of the welcome extended to Mrs. Tacy. After the congregation's welcome to the Tacy family had been expressed by Rev. R. MacAulay, Mrs. Tacy replied that she greatly appreciated the welcome the town-folk had given her.

Mr. Tacy, who is temporarily confined to the hospital, is well known in western art circles as an established artist whose scenic and portrait paintings have sold in many parts of Canada. Some of his paintings were displayed at the shower.

He is considerably impressed by the scenic attractions of the Crow's Nest Pass and plans to record its beauty on his canvases.

As a resident artist in Coleman, Mr. Tacy will not only make an important contribution to the cultural life of the town, but will prove to be a great asset in making known the beauty of our mountain valley to the outside world through the medium of his skilled artist's brush and imagination.

Mr. Tacy is from Hungary. Mrs. Tacy is from Germany, where she was a home economics teacher prior to her marriage. They have been in Canada since 1940.

Snowy Weather Hits Pass Area

The weather in the Pass the last few days has given the Pass more snow than has been experienced all winter.

It melts one day and then comes down again like a large blanket. March came in like a tame lion, who had his fur slightly ruffled.

The temperature has not gone below zero, but the nights become quite chilly with fairly warm days. This weather has made the streets and roads on the slippery side causing a few minor accidents.

Lions Club Hold 'Ladies' Night'

The Coleman Lions Club held a ladies' night on February 25th with over 40 people in attendance.

Guest speaker was Mr. Don Thornton, district governor, of Blainmore. Mr. Thornton spoke on the Lions place in the community, its purpose and aims. He stated that the Lions are considered the community's first club. His address was very informative and of considerable interest to the Lions present.

Perfect attendance buttons were presented to two members for a five-year record. Recipients were Mr. M. Dunford and Mr. R. Pattinson. Past president's button was presented to Mr. E. E. Fabo, with praise for his fine efforts in behalf of the Lions here in Coleman.

A very enjoyable evening was spent in playing whist after all the speeches were concluded.

Nice prizes were awarded the winners.

Bride-Elect Honored

A delightful shower in honor of Miss Marie Berze, matron of the Crow's Nest Pass Hospital, who is being married in the near future, was held at the home of Mrs. A. Balog at Frank.

The room was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers and miniature umbrellas suspended from the ceiling.

Whist was the evening's entertainment with honors going to: First, Mrs. Senyk; second, Mrs. N. Matthews, and consolation Mrs. I. Hopkins.

The marked cup prize went to Mrs. J. Faint.

Following cards a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses at a tastefully set table centered with a lovely heart-shaped cake.

The honored guest was presented with a beautiful set of crystal by her assembled guests for which she ably thanked everyone.

Hostesses for the evening were: Mesdames, J. Balog, M. Herby, N. Kinner, L. Krygwy, M. Margatka, N. Lavigne, A. Bosetti and M. Bosetti.

Legion Bingo Enjoyed

A good crowd attended the Bingo held in the Legion clubrooms on Friday evening.

No one was lucky enough to win the $40 jackpot. This will make the jackpot at the next Bingo $45 to be won in 56 numbers.

J. Syzanski was the consolation winner of $5.

Other lucky winners for the evening were: Heating pad, Mrs. M. Korman. Ten gala, gas, Mrs. J. Nelson. Coffee percolator, Mrs. E. Ash.

$5 cash, Mrs. J. M. McCullough. Pillows, K. Snowden.

$5 cash, W. Poxon and G. Mison split.

Steak knives, Mrs. D. Mills, of Blainmore.

Scales, T. Sudworth.

$5, W. Field.

Consolation winners G. LeBlute, door prize was won by A. Gettman, Sr.

Pass Rinks Win At Fernie Bonspiel

Three rinks from the Pass participated in the Fernie Bonspiel held last week-end. Two from Coleman and one from Blainmore. The Coleman rinks were: Joe and Bill Troy, W. Hoggan and J. Kovalik; C. Roughton, R. Kulig, P. Smith and Jack Condon.

From Blainmore were H. Zak, sr., R. Kwassie, H. Vandoni and R. Vennard.

The Roughs rink took a 4th prize in D competition for which they won Trophy Ashtrays. The Zak rink took a 4th prize in another competition winning Travelling Clocks.

Unless tuberculosis prevention can be speeded up about 35,000 Canadians who are healthy today will develop this disease in the next five years.

Increased Salary Demands Presented to School Board

Coleman school teachers have presented to the board a demand for a substantial increase in salaries.

At a special board meeting held Monday evening the board countered with an increased salary schedule which was presented to teachers' bargaining committee.

The increase requested by the teachers is a very substantial increase over their present wage schedule, and as they stated they did not receive an increase last year, they are away behind the salary schedule being paid by other school districts.

In the school board's counter proposal they have increased the wage schedule considerably over the present wage scale. This was the second of two special meetings held with the teachers, and negotiations are continuing.

If, at the next meeting to be held shortly, no agreement is reached, this matter will be taken to arbitration. Both parties have conducted negotiations in a harmonious manner.

It was pointed out by the board that they did not want the teachers to think that they, the board, wanted them to underwrite the coal industry. But that the board thought that their demands were too high for this area to meet, inasmuch as the taxable property was steadily declining.

The board went on record that if the conditions warranted they would not have quibbled too much. They could not see their way clear at the present time to grant the demands, but that their counter proposal had given the teachers a substantial increase.

The delegation thanked them for the meeting and stated "we will be back".

The Red Cross Appeal

In our community this month it is rather difficult to overlook the fact that this is Red Cross Month. Flags, posters and people remind us of the occasion. The visits of the volunteer canvassers place the even in the foreground.

Those canvassers are our neighbors and are a part of a vast army of men and women across Canada who are giving their time and energy for mercy in good weather and bad, through snow, slush and mud they will walk our streets and knock on the doors of the nation to seek help for others.

The Red Cross volunteer canvassers are dedicated people from all walks of life. They willingly assume this arduous and thankless task to make sure our Canadian Red Cross Society has the financial support to carry on its traditional work.

The Canadian Red Cross is taken for granted by most of our citizens. We know that it is working day and night in our community, throughout the nation and around the world on our behalf, but we seldom become too concerned about its activities. That is, until we are in need of help from the Red Cross.

As a fortunate nation, very few of us have had to call on the Red Cross for assistance. For that, we should be grateful. However, we must make certain that the Red Cross has the means to meet any emergency when help is needed. In recent years our neighbors on all sides have been victims of fires, floods and famines, while we have been spared. This good fortune has given the Canadian Red Cross an opportunity to extend our helping hands to those nations which have been less fortunate.

Every one of us has an obligation to maintain a strong Red Cross. Through our dollars we can share in its work and know that Red Cross assistance will go to those in need regardless of color, creed or political conviction.

This month when the volunteer Red Cross canvasser calls on you—think—then give generously.

Middlemen are so-called because originally they had quarters amidships.

Hansell Wins Nomination

The Social Credit convention for the Federal Riding of Macleod was held last Saturday and unanimously nominated E. G. Hansell to contest the seat in the March 31st election. The convention was one of the largest and most enthusiastic since the first one held in 1935. The town hall was filled to capacity and almost every section of the constituency was represented.

Hon. Peter Dawson was chairman of the convention and after Mr. Hansell's name was moved, gave the convention five minutes in which to present other names. No others were nominated.

In his acceptance speech, Mr. Hansell stated that minority parties played a powerful role in parliament. It was through minorities that new concepts were originated. The Social Credit movement was determined to carry the concept of financial reform policies into effect at Ottawa.

Mr. Hansell went on to say that it is active minorities which change the course of history. Mass opinion is formed by the convictions and actions of a hand full of people who think things out and whose convictions find support with the people.

"Social Creditists started a great crusade for a better way of life and we are not going to be defeated in our ultimate objective. High finance must not be permitted to rule the people," he said among cheers.

The guest speaker was Mr. John C. Landerson, M.L.A. for Lethbridge who gave a report in the recent regional conference held in Vancouver. Hon. James Hartley, Minister of Public Works and Wm. Kovach, M.L.A. for Pincher Creek - Crow's Nest, also spoke.

Mr. John H. Blackmore, a visitor from Cardston, was also called upon to speak.

Collieries Layoff More Mineworkers

Coleman Collieries were forced again this last week to lay off more mine workers as the steady decline in the coal industry force more and more mines to reduce production.

How much longer Coleman will have operating mines is just a question of time unless something very drastic happens to increase the demand for coal.

This mine has been forced to reduce a staff of over 1100 men working in 1952 to about 160 today.

This has cut very greatly into the economy of Coleman.

Coleman To Get New Post Office

After years of many efforts put forth by civic leaders the Post Office Department has finally reached a decision to erect a new post office.

Tenders for the erection have been called and it is expected that shortly after April 2nd that construction will begin.

The site has been picked and will be up next to the Roxy.

This building has been urgently required for a good many years and should improve the postal service here in Coleman.

Southern Alberta Scout Leaders Conference

On March 29, 1958, Scout leaders from across Southern Alberta will converge on Bow Island to take part in the third annual Southern Alberta Scout conference.

It is expected that representatives will be attending from the ten Scout districts in Southern Alberta with many guests and visitors from other parts of the province. The Scout districts are:

Chinook (Raymond, Magrath); Cardston, Pincher Creek, Crow's Nest, Porcupine Hills (Clareholm, Fort Macleod), Lake McGregor, (Vulcan area), Lethbridge, Flatlands (Taber area), Foremost, Medicine Hat, Sunshine (Coups Highway area).

Guest speaker at the annual dinner to be held in the evening, will be the provincial president of the Boy Scouts Association Mr. C. Little of Calgary. Mr. Little was at one time the district president, while in Lethbridge.

The delegates at the conference will be representing some 4,000 Cubs, Scouts, Rovers and leaders in the southern region of Alberta. Topics of discussion will be 'Leadership' and 'The Lost Boy', under the chairmanship of E. H. Middleton, provincial vice-president.

Thought For Today

Dun & Bradstreet provides the following startling statistic — "Ninety-five per cent of all failures in business are from the ranks of non-advertisers. Only five per cent of those who fail are advertisers."

Vernon Barford, left, retired organist and choir leader of All Saints Anglican Cathedral in Edmonton, records his impressions of early days in Alberta as part of a general government sponsored program to preserve the history and folklore of the province. Officers of the Department of Economic Affairs have recorded 75 such interviews this year. Non-destructive recordings will be made from the "tapes" and stored along with other information in the Provincial Archives. The program was authorized at the last Session of the Alberta Legislature. Future generations will thus be able to listen to the stories Alberta's pioneers have to tell.

Mr. Barford has been in Edmonton since 1900. He came to the capital city from Fort Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan, where he had emigrated from Oxford, England, in 1895. For many years Mr. Barford led the choir and was organist at All Saints Cathedral in Edmonton. Conducting the interview is E. S. J. Bryant, Alberta Government Director of Advertising.

Former Coleman Children Saved From Drowning

Calm thinking by Anne Lowe, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lowe was responsible for saving the lives of her five-year-old sister, three-year-old brother and a seven-year-old neighbor boy last week, after they had fallen through the ice into five feet of water in an unused irrigation well.

After Margaret, Bobby and Murray Krause had fallen in, Anne pulled Murray out and then Margaret, but when trying to get Bobby out of the well, was pulled in herself. With Margaret's help she climbed out and then pulled Bobby out.

Bobby was heavily dressed, and when soaked with water must have weighed a hundred pounds, but the two girls struggled until he was out of danger.

Anne, who is in grade two, said she was not scared during the ordeal.

Her first act was to send neighbor Murray Krause to the house for help. By the time adult help arrived the three soaking Lowe children were on their way home.

At the time of the accident about an inch of water was on the ice and as the presence of the well was unknown to the Lowses, it was not called out of bounds to the children. These plucky children's grandparents reside here in Coleman. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lowe, sr.

Hi-C Group Elect Officers

The Hi-C group of St. Paul's United Church elected its slate of officers on Thursday night, February 27th.

Copresidents are John Cousins and Charlie Horn. Charlie Parker is treasurer, and Annie May Tharnt is secretary.

After the business meeting, a group discussion was held on the topic "After School What?" Many suggestions were discussed concerning what students considered when they were choosing their life work.

Following the discussion there was a period of recreation. The evening ended with a devotional period.

Hi-C is a group for young people from the age of 15 and up. The group meets on alternate Thursdays at 7:30 p.m.

The next regular meeting will be Thursday, March 14.

The word salary comes from "salarium" meaning salt money, since Roman soldiers received part of their pay in salt.

WHAT IS AN EDITORIAL?

The question came up a few days ago as to what constitutes an editorial. We think our readers may appreciate a few words on this subject of make up which may in turn help them to obtain more enjoyment from the newspaper.

A newspaper's editorial columns are reserved for an expression of opinion or policy which is the policy or opinion of the newspaper itself. This more personal opinion can only be given through an editorial.

A columnist may express his opinions in his own column, but he must take the responsibility for his remarks or comments. If he wishes to engage in a controversial subject he must be prepared to stand by his statements and substantiate them if necessary.

Reporting of events which make the news headlines must remain factual — no comment or slanting in any direction is allowed by the writer. The facts themselves should be stated after being carefully checked — the reader being left to form his own conclusions.

In an editorial, however, the substance of a particular news story, very often a political subject, can be taken and editorialized upon, the editor giving his own interpretation of the event, its cause and effects. This is then recognized as the stand the paper intends to take should the subject be pursued or grow into a national controversy. Over the years the editorial "We" has come to be recognized as the voice of the newspaper itself. The columnist is permitted to use the "first person", while news remains factual.

From time to time "Letters to the Editor" are published under that heading, but the views expressed by the writers are not necessarily those of the paper. The "Letters to the Editor" column is the voice of the people and is open to any reader for an expression of his own personal opinion, and will be published, subject to it carrying the signature of the writer and is not of libelous nature.

Too few people seem to realize that they themselves can express their opinions through the local press. Many a genuine source of annoyance could be cleared up much more quickly if the ones who complain would only get into print and draw attention to the trouble.

No alderman worthy of his salt would ignore for long a complaint brought to the notice of the taxpayers through the medium of the press. Such complaints get looked into and if found to be genuine are corrected without loss of time.

Under certain circumstances "Guest Editorials" are permitted, but are always marked as such so that the reader is aware that this is a departure from the normal procedure.

Such courtesy is sometimes extended to a visiting dignitary or possibly a national charitable organization planning a big campaign — but these are the exceptions to the general rule.

We hope the foregoing may help our readers to understand better the various items, articles and columns that appear week after week and understanding will receive more enlightenment and enjoyment from their reading.

Dollar Premium Tourist Factor

VANCOUVER, B. C. (cp) — Canadians should cease "sniping" at the United States, says John W. Fisher, executive director of the Canadian Tourist Assn.

He suggested in an address to the Canadian Women's Club here that it might be a good idea to take American currency at par.

"They have been brought up to believe there is nothing so strong as the American dollar," he said, and it was the psychological effect that mattered when Americans found Canadian money rated higher. "It's our attitude that hurts."

He said it might be felt that "Americans are awful about treatment of our currency, but the point is that we are in business."

Canada had a tourist deficit last year of $161,000,000. "There has been a buyers' resistance among tourists as a result of differential in money rates."

"Why promote our own country by sniping at Americans? We're always trying to tell Uncle Sam how to run his country."

"We've got to recognize that North America is a unit and the western world must be united." If the United States had not been Canada's neighbor Canada would not have had the progress she has had. Canada needs investment capital from an older country.

"We've been pretty lucky to live next door to a giant who doesn't mean us any harm at all."

Walk for better health

The wise woman who cares about her figure and her health walks a mile a day, says beauty expert John Robert Power of New York. "If you walk a mile a day you will lose 10 pounds a year even without counting calories," Mr. Power said. "You can't win the race towards an ideal weight by a quick spurt or two. It's the steady, reliable pace that pays off."

Walking stimulates circulation and activates the blood stream which brings greater nourishment to every part of the body. It lends sparkle to the eyes and a glow to the skin.

"And don't forget that walking relieves tension," Mr. Power added. "This gives you a feeling of relaxation and great freshness."

COMMON SENSE TELLS US THAT:

- The Social Credit Government must not be left out on a limb. It must have strong representation at Ottawa.
- Minority groups always spearhead great reforms. When old-time parties condemn third parties they oppose all efforts for reform.
- Financial reform is absolutely necessary, otherwise Russian Communism can beat us into slavery. The financial powers must not be permitted to rule. Old time parties bow to their will.
- Social Credit offers the necessary change.

Change for Eskimo should be gradual

WINNIPEG, Man. (cp) — The change to modern culture will not necessarily harm Canadian Eskimos if they take it slowly and carefully, a federal government official said here.

Walter Rudnicki, chief of the welfare branch of the department of northern affairs, said many Eskimos already have abandoned their familiar hunting life to work for wages on various projects.

"They are highly adaptable and intelligent, and employers think highly of them," he said.

"Some Eskimos will probably go on living as they always have for many years. Some have one foot in each culture. They will often work for a few weeks then take a week off to go back to their old hunting life. Many employers plan the working week to give them time off for hunting."

The aim of the welfare department is to equip the Eskimos to make the best of new conditions. Seven welfare workers operate in the Northwest Territories among about 10,000 Eskimos.

One of their projects is a rehabilitation centre at Frobisher Bay on Baffin Island, where Eskimos unable to live normal life due to sickness or other handicaps are trained in a new way of life.

Men no longer able to hunt are taught one of 15 trades and the whole family is taught how to use oil stoves, white men's food, and the principles of earning wages and managing business.

Uphill and Gaglardi "Figure Things Out"

(By James K. Nesbitt)

VICTORIA, B. C. — The unemployment situation of Fernie was once again on Tuesday brought to the attention of the Legislature by Thomas Uphill, MLA for Fernie.

Mr. Uphill read a telegram from Fernie's Mayor, James White to "Implore the House to give us special consideration, as the city's position is deteriorating rapidly, and crisis will arise in the very near future."

Mr. Uphill expressed annoyance because Premier Bennett was not in the Legislature.

"This matter of Fernie is important enough for the premier of the province to know something about," Mr. Uphill said. "I'm wondering if the Premier's coming in."

He counted the cabinet ministers present and found only four out of 12 — Kenneth Kiernan of Mines, Ray Williston of Lands and Forest, Lyle Wicks of Labor, and Wesley Black the provincial secretary.

Undiscouraged Mr. Uphill went on: "Mr. Speaker, this is something that is urgent. With the meagry this government has, and the unlimited credit it has this government should be able to do something immediately."

Several times Mr. Uphill said he wished the Premier was in his place. "I'm only asking for justice," he said. Mr. Uphill said the governments of B. C. and Alberta should be able to reach an agreement regarding 142 men who live in Alberta and work in B. C.

"It's action — immediate action — we need, and for heaven's sake, let's have it," said Mr. Uphill, and then he asked Attorney-General Bonner in the Premier's absence, to give some assurance something will be done for Fernie and its worried people.

Mr. Bonner didn't answer, so Mr. Uphill pleaded with Highways Minister Gaglardi to start some public works in Fernie.

"I promise you, Tom, I'll do my best," said Mr. Gaglardi. Mr. Uphill wasn't satisfied with this, he said "I know a political promise and the execution of that promise are two different things."

Mr. Gaglardi relented, said "You come over to my office, Tom, and we'll see if we can figure something out."

"Well, God bless you, Phil, I'll be there," said Mr. Uphill and sat down, and then the two of them left the House to discuss the plight of Fernie.

Don't Tread On Thin Ice

One-inch thick—KEEP OFF
Two-inch thick—ONE MAY
Three-inch thick—SMALL GROUPS

Four-inch thick—"OKAF".
Remember this rhyme — It may save your life.

Red Cross also suggests the following simple but effective prevention and rescue aids in case of ice accidents.

1—If there is an opening in the ice place a bush in it as a warning signal to those who follow you.

2—If you have to cross a body of frozen water a pair of 6-inch spikes tied on a piece of cord around the neck can be of great assistance in getting out if you fall through the ice.

3—Always carry a pole when crossing ice on foot. This will bridge the hole in the ice and can be used to lift your body out of the water if you fall in. Once out of the water roll away from the hole. This distributes your weight over a greater area and there is less chance of re-occurrence.

4—Trucks or cars crossing ice is very dangerous. If this is necessary all windows should be left open and one passenger should walk ahead of the vehicle with pole or rope to check for weak spots in the ice.

Tuberculosis can be prevented, but despite this there are still between nine and ten thousand new cases yearly in Canada.

"Veto" comes from the Latin, meaning 'I forbid'.
